

Lauren Corso is the Central Outreach Director at City Church. She works mostly out of the New Haven, CT office, although she enjoys traveling to the five campuses throughout the state. She has been a member of City Church for a little over five years now. Lauren has her Master of Arts in Teaching from Sacred Heart University in Fairfield and has lived in Connecticut her entire life. She works closely with all of City Church's campus pastors to learn about the cities they are planted in and to strategically plan meaningful and lasting impact by reaching out to the local communities in a variety of ways. She also helps to oversee the global missions department, which pairs nicely with her excitement around traveling the world.

Ademar Lima .Jr is a member of First Baptist Church in Rockland, MA. He serves as Co-Pastor and Vice President of the Church. Ademar gave his life to Christ in 1998 and has served the Lord in various capacities in the church and community. He has been married to Rosimeire Fagundes Lima for 17 years and has two sons: Victor who is 9 years old and Thalles who is 6 years old. Ademar completed his Bachelor of Theology from Boston Theological School in May of 2016 and is looking forward to assisting Pastor Marcone Correia planting churches throughout the Boston area.

Dr. Mark T. Oliver is married to Cheryl and has three sons Jason (40), Jeremy (38), and Jesse (35). They have two lovely daughter-in-laws and six grandchildren. Mark has degrees from Troy State, Dallas Theological and Westminster Seminaries. In 1985 he was ordained to the Gospel Ministry with the core value of his philosophy of ministry: "establishing a culture of life-on-life or intentional disciple-making." Since April of 2005 he has served as the Pastor of Trinity Baptist Church in Brockton, MA. He is pro-city and pro-church and sees himself in the church "turn-around" ministry, preferring to lead dying urban churches to become leaders of hope in their city. Mark has founded Life Transforming Leadership Foundation (www.ltlfonline.org) which also seeks to disciple and serve the city by seeking to catalyze collaboration between churches.
